

The Canadian Poetry Press is pleased to announce the recent publication of a substantial and important addition to its Texts and Contexts Series:

COLLECTED SHORT STORIES of
ISABELLA VALANCY CRAWFORD

Edited by

Len Early and Michael Peterman

"Isabella Valancy Crawford ... produced a sufficient number of artfully constructed stories to deserve critical attention and respect. At their best, they exhibit her characteristic flair for poetic language, ironic detachment, and sympathetic humour, and they reflect her shrewd sense of the short story's possibilities during the era in which she wrote." – from the Introduction.
