

Letter 12.

Christmas 1891
Ottawa

Dear May

There is nothing very notable or very seasonable inside;<sup>1</sup> but I send it you to indicate that I and Maud remember you at this season especially, and wish you every blessing.

Archibald Lampman

<sup>1</sup> Enclosed with the letter is a broadsheet containing Scott's "At Scarboro' Beach" and Lampman's "A Thunderstorm," dated Jul 1890; Alcyone 56; Poems 214-15.
